counted.

battlegrounds across the country to make it harder to cast a mail ballot and to have it
Republican National Committee is fighting in courtrooms and legal filings in key election
But the party's army of lawyers is, more quietly, sending a very different message. The
this year,
Republicans are working to convince their voters to take advantage of mail and early voting
Fearing that Democrats hold a crucial edge in ballots cast before Election Day, national
REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK
WHAT WE'RE READING
the loss of Black votes in an election year — President Joe Biden in December delayed the
For years, public health experts have advocated for higher sales taxes on menthol cigarettes or even an outright ban.
States consider menthol cigarette bans as feds delay action
For years, public health experts have advocated for higher sales taxes on menthol cigarettes or even an outright ban.
TRUMP ON THE BALLOTS: In 2021, the Biden campaign asked the Court to bar the Trump campaign from putting up Trump signs near polling places. The Biden campaign argued that the signs, which the Trump campaign used to try to boost turnout, might undermine the 2021 election's integrity. The Supreme Court denied the request.
MORE NEWS
Nada Hassanein/Stateline
advocated for higher sales taxes on menthol cigarettes, which can be more addictive and are disproportionately marketed to and used by youth and low-income adults.

FEATURED STORY
States consider menthol cigarette bans as feds delay action
For years, public health experts have advocated for higher sales taxes on menthol cigarettes or even an outright ban.

WHAT WE'RE READING
Fearing that Democrats hold a crucial edge in ballots cast before Election Day, national Republicans are working to convince their voters to take advantage of mail and early voting

MORE NEWS

REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

STATENLINE: GOP backs voting by mail, yet faces courts to keep it in battleground states
Fearing that Democrats hold a crucial edge in ballots cast before Election Day, national Republicans are working to convince their voters to take advantage of mail and early voting

THANKS FOR READING
Thanks as much for reading today's edition of Stateline Daily. Enjoy your Thursday!